MUSEUMS AND MEMORIALS

GENOCIDE MEMORIAL - GISOZI

The people of Rwanda embrace peace and reconciliation. They are committed to fight the ideology of genocide. The memorials found throughout the country are moving testimonies in memory of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi. Inaugurated on the 10th anniversary of the Rwandan genocide, the Kigali Genocide Memorial is where 259,000 victims have been buried. This memorial also serves to educate about genocide in the 20th Century.

A small museum in Kigali City lies at the site of the massacre of 10 Belgian UN Blue Berets. At the onset of Genocide under the command of General Dallaire, they were deployed to guard the house of the then Prime Minister Agatha Uwilingiyimana. When the genocide began, Presidential Guard soldiers invaded the home, disarmed the Belgians and transported them to Camp Kigali where they killed them.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST GENOCIDE MUSEUM

Located in the Parliamentary building, this museum depicts in details how the Campaign Against Genocide Plan was executed by Rwanda Patriotic Front/Army (RPF/A) following the withdrawal of UN troops leaving the targeted Tutsi under the mercy of the Genocidaires and how only the RPF/A forces who were in the war of liberation took the unilateral decision to stop Genocide, Rescue victims of Genocide and defeat the Genocidal forces.
